Milanović: No concessions on BiH Croat rights as long as I'm president – HINA

 July 12, 2021

Croatian President Zoran Milanović said that as long as he is president, Croatia will no longer any concessions with respect to the rights of the Croats in BiH.

"It would be in the interest of everyone to make sure that the Dayton agreement is respected, and compliance with the agreement can help Bosnia and Herzegovina to become a law-based state that can continue travelling towards the EU," Milanović said.
